McDuell.

Two gaunt, seedy-looking tramps met and shook hands in the Capitol park this morning. Said one of them, with a knowing look, "D'ye know that the persishun of President pro tempore of the Senate is a very important one?" "How do you mean?" quoried number two. "Why, the gap between him and the Presidency is very narrow. A bull-dog pistol and a crank is the gap, and there is a full crop of both of 'em."

A COMMITTER appointed by the Turn Verein has obtained a reopening of the case of Henry Paul, sentenced to a year's imprisonment for attempted street robbery of Frank Rolls, a hausom cal-driver. It appears that Paul is a yery respectable young German, who only recently arrived here and can speak little or no English. He was drunk and tried to make Rolla understand that he had lost his way, when the latter got scared and started for the police. There was no demand made for "money or life" as the poor fellow had no such words in his vocabulary. When tried in the Police Court he was nable to state his case. It is probable that a prompt reversal of the able that a prompt reversal of the sentence will be the result of the rehearing. Judge Snell to-day set the case for rehearing on Tuesday next.

A New Telephone.

A new competitor has entered the telephone field. A Loudon lotter says that is new telephone has been tried between that city and one of the outports, which is not only cheater than the Bell and Hellson combination, but quite superior to it, insamuch as it gets ris altogether of the silment of Induction. With ordurary telegraph whee it is from necessary to have a deather like, so great is the disturbance from messages moving along other wires. By the new telephone an ordinary terms, is simpler, and will be half the death, it curries for there than the Bell Edison parents, its implex, and will be half the deat, it is being used along the Thames. The Accident on the Midland.

The going of men that left here yesterday coming on the streekers' train for the morning on the wreckers' train for the country of the collision on the Virginia Mid-land Road were engaged all day in clearing tracks, which was accomplished by 6 o'clock yesterday evening, though it will be several days before the wrecked cars and co-gines are gutten up and brought to this city. Both trains were complete wrecks, the cars and engines belong piled up in a long and the creight of all description be-nay emitted even the track and the fields of particular over the property.

The remains of Mr. Aftert Haney, which seem brought to this city yesterday morning and carried to the undertaking establishment of Mrenz, Demaine & Son, after being yesperly arranged and placed in a casket, were taken to his late residence, on Franklin street, from whence the funeral took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. His remains seek followed to their last resting piece by a number of morning friends, including the members of morning friends, including the members of including friends, including the members of the Independent traffer of Mechanics. Mr. J. Thomas larrey, who is, it is thought, estimally injured, was brought to his feame in this city vesterday, where he lies in a critical condition, the decien not allowing him to be removed from the attrether on which he was first haid after the accident.

The injuries sustained by other trainhands, as stated in The Currer yesterday, are not of a scribus character. The exact cause of the accident, and who is the responsible party, is as yet a mystery. The collision is crudited by some to Conductor Polit, it being his first trip over the main line of the road in the capacity of a trainhand, and others attribute it to the improper issuance of running orders.
